Curriculum Vitae

Personal Information
Title	Prof.
Full Name	Shifeng Jin
Academic and Professional Credentials	PhD
Affiliation	China Medical University
Country	China
Short Bio
Dr. Jin is a distinguished plastic surgeon currently serving at the China Medical University. With extensive experience in reconstructive surgery and oncological defects, Dr. Jin specializes in the surgical management of skin malignancies. Over the past few years, Dr. Jin has focused particularly on the clinical behavior and treatment outcomes of Basal Cell Carcinoma (BCC). Through the management of numerous complex cases, he has observed that BCC presents greater clinical challenges than often suggested in the literature, specifically regarding recurrence patterns even after standard margin excision. Dr. Jin is dedicated to sharing these clinical insights to advocate for a more rigorous and individualized approach to the treatment of skin tumors.
